

Society AND LOCAL NOTES

Wading interested in social affairs has been serving some time during the past year as the army ordnance officer at the newest first graduate. The present ten-year-old is always characterized by a smile, a social air, and from time to time until the middle of last February 25, which is the middle of his tenth, the incoming month affords opportunity for a host of entertainments, the most popular of which is undoubtedly the birthday of the month, which marks the birth of Lincoln, and there's no greater gift than the year which leads to the greatest of all gifts—entertainment. On St. Valentine's day Washington's birthday has come to mean, as a general rule, a swaner dance reception or a tea.

Cantilena will be celebrated at All Saints church, Sunday, at 6:30 p.m., by the Annual Procession of the Canaries by the choir while the congregation looks lighted candles. In the new organ room, Mrs. Anna M. of Trinity church, will preach the sermon. There will be special music. Everybody is welcome.

DOB RUSSELL'S COMPANY
RETURNS TO THE BOOKER
WASHINGTON NEXT WEEK

Bob Russell's Company will play a return engagement at the Booker Washington next week, beginning Monday. Mr. Russell and his aggregation of talented performers won the plaudits of the theatregoers with their show last week. Their show was undeniably the best that has been seen on the W. stage in years. Packed houses were the result.

Next week Mr. Russell will present an entirely different production. The program will include new songs, new dances and new features by the same personnel of players; but an unusual feature will be a comedy sketch entitled "The Devil Is In Itself." To garnish all of its comedy carries a thrill and the hereafter is vividly displayed with scenic and electrical effects.

CHINATOWN SHOW AT BOOKER WASHINGTON THIS WEEK

The Clark's Joy Makers are presenting a typical Chinatown play at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The story concerns a double life, and in the effort to run down the ring leader of the tribe in opium dens, is continuous excitement. The play is written by one of the hands of John Latouche and "Hoots Malo Man." The principal players are the "Masters of Chinatown," Wm. H. Hart, the den keeper, Dr. G. Allen, the secret operator, by Miss Murphy, characterized by Aaron Persico, a top hand who returns, Persico, and others. "Masters of Chinatown" is a Western Thriller.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2 "The Last White Man" A Western Thriller. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3 "Tom Mix" AND TONY IN "Ladies To Board" WEDNESDAY, FEB. 4 Roy Stewart as "The Vanishing Gunman"

THURSDAY, FEB. 5 JACKIE COOGAN In His Latest and Best "Robinson Crusoe Jr." ROBERT JOHNSON

MUSICAL REVUE AT LIBERTY NEXT WEEK

The Liberty Theatre will offer a Musical Revue next week, opening Saturday. The "pleats" feature will be Wm. Desmond in "Robin Hood." The liberty program is composed of songs, sketches and comic Feature Pictures. Two shows are given each night at 7 and 9. The Sunday show continues from 1 to 3. At 11 A.M. a children's matinee.

SISSE AND BLAKE WITH "THE CHOCOLATE DANDIES" AT AMERICAN NEXT WEEK

Noble Strode and Eddie Baker, starring in their latest and greatest musical creation of quizzical originality, "The Chocolate Dandies," are coming to the American Theatre next Sunday. Performances are given each week end, with the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. This is a series of comedies in musical entertainment. The show will be presented entirely by colored entertainers. In fact, "The Chocolate Dandies" is a "colored talent presented" for the company, which chooses a long list of talented players, all of whom have been professional stage artists in the various organizations of the Negro race. Here again, a few that old bands and new will be joined by the likes of Noble Strode, Eddie Baker, Mildred Simms, Valaida Snow, Amanda Randolph, Elizabeth Welsh, Dixie Cleghorn, Pauline Gill, Lillian Randolph, Ethel Waters, Juanita Hall, Dorothy Dandridge, George James, Jr., W. H. Hunt, Andrew Jackson, Mamie Smith, Eddie Hodges, Leon Redding, Joe Smith, Howard克斯, Percy Colston, The Chocolate Dandies, is a series of 40 performances, and comedy in 2 acts and 12 scenes.

There is a large card in the program showing the cast in the 12 scenes, and the orchestra has 12 titles. There is a thrilling drama scene between Gertie and Eddie, and a scene made possible by the use of the telephone in the Ben Hur telephone case.

Blanche Baker, the star, is a comical dame, who was a riot in "Sissie" alongside of the show. Billie White, who still has an enormous popularity, also appears, and is expected to be a hit again.

"Find Your Man" Another Western Drama "SEEING RED"

Another Western Drama "SEEING RED"

A reception will be given in honor of Sisise and Blake, and the "Chocolate Dandies" company at Franklin Hall, Grand and West Pine, Tuesday and Wednesday, with a special benefit for the colored day nursery at the Booker Washington Theatre, next Friday night, Feb. 6. The two will play from 11:30 and many features are promised.

Bob Russell and Co. will participate in the Mardi Gras Parade, the benefit for the colored day nursery at the Booker Washington Theatre, next Friday night, Feb. 6. The two will play from 11:30 and many features are promised.

day. It is a story of the life's happiness and tragedy of a family that lived in a great forest through which ran the line of a railroad; the man was played by the signal tower. One of the signals is the signal tower. One of the big scenes pictures comes when there is an impending wreck of a train full of dead people, or a runaway freight. The signal man knows that all lives depend upon him, but at the appalling moment, in a second, he is attacking his wife.

Eve Novak in "A Fight For Honor" on Monday; Bob Custer in "Platinum" on Tuesday; Dorothy Flye is in "The No-Gum Man" on Wednesday, are all big features.

The attractions for next Thursday and Friday are "The Devil and Miss Justice" and "The Devil and Miss Justice" and "The Devil and Miss Justice". It is a historical romance and includes: the Boston Tea Party, the Pade of Paul Revere, the Battle of Bunker Hill, the Battle of Trenton, Washington crossing the Delaware, Benjamin Franklin at the Court of Versailles, and spectacular scenes from the life of George Washington.

Deon's "Molly's Under in Crash" is beautiful, as ever reaches new heights in dramatic ability. It is the cost of upwards of 8,000 persons supporting her. Her scenes of faithful love, and Hohrok Blies, the charming but utterly despicable villain.

THE COMET

Richardson in "Clash Master" with the Comet Theatre Company on Saturday. It is a story of a poor boy who goes to the North Pole and becomes an industrialist. He is a quarelling with himself and his wife, and finally goes to the South American jungle. The picture was made at West Point and the entire academy is shown in its splendor.

Buffalo Bill will be featured in "Haro Little Davy" on Sunday; "Two Shakes Are Bare" will be the Monday attraction. Bertie Compson will be seen in a startling drama of Broadway gold diggers, "The Deadwood Woods," Tuesday.

The attraction for Thursday and Friday will be "Christine of the Haunted House", with Florence Vidor. It is the story of a woman's love, yet it begins instead of ending with her marriage. Christine is a woman who craves a husband, and she is always failing to find happiness with her first husband, who is untrue. Her second husband, she loves him, and she seeks happiness with him, but she finds happiness fails, and the price she pays, makes an intensely interesting picture.

THE RETINA

The Retina program for the coming week includes: Wm. S. Hart in "The Devil and His Hand" Saturday; Eddie Roosevelt in "Waterloo" Sunday; "The Last White Man" Monday; Tom Mix and Tony in "Lone Wolf" Tuesday; and Bertie Compson in "The Vestaline Gunman" Wednesday; Jackie Coogan, supported by Noble Johnson in "Robinson Crusoe Jr.", on Thursday.

THE CASINO

Hill Cody and Percy O'Connor in a wild west story "Mountain Men" will be the Casino's attraction this Saturday. Art Acord is leading star in "Looped for Life", the special on Sunday and Monday. It is a picture of a woman who has been married and is said to have had so many accidents that some of the thrilling things she does are really real.

Edgar Brause will be seen in "Silk Stocking Sat." on Tuesday. It's a cross melodrama. Wm. Parham and Gladys Brockwell in "The End of the Trail" will be the Wednesday feature.

Wm. S. Hart in "Wagon Tracks" on Thursday, and in "The Devil and His Hand" Saturday. Wm. S. Hart is a historical character, being in the fifties, and dealing with those hardy pioneers who braved the unknown terrors of the desert to reach the golden land. Mr. Hart plays the part of a guide or scout on the order of Kit Carson.

"Vanity's Price" will be featured next Friday. It is an epic photoplay of grubbing society life, featuring Alice C. Nilsson.

THE OLYMPIA

Rio-Tin-Tin, the picture dog, in "The Olympia" picture, will be the Olympia Theatre's special this Saturday. It features a dog's wonderful courage, even though it is the case of death to save the woman he loves.

"Madonna of the Streets" will be shown on Sunday and Monday. It is a stirring drama, the story of a woman who returns to the screen after a long absence. Edmund Lowe, the famous "Russia Girl", and Laurette Taylor in "Happiness" will take the featured roles.

The Olympia's "Happiness" will be the Lincoln Theatre's feature this Saturday.

"Captain Blood" the romantic drama of "Buccaneer Days" by the famous male, will be the feature on Sunday and Monday. J. Warren Kerrigan, Jeanne Eagels and Billy noted favoritism. The picture is a combination of comedy and fast action. A flooded mine, and other difficulties, are the chief scenes.

"The Plowboys" will be shown on Wednesday. Frank Mayo will present the picture, which includes a double feature with Tom Mix in "Pals in Blue" and "Pep-O-Mint Champion", baseball game, and the sinking of the Titanic.

"The Cleopatra" will be presented next Thursday and Friday. Marie Prevost, May McAvoy and Ronald Coleman are leading stars in this stirring love drama.

THE JESTAMERE

Marilyn Miller will be seen in "Racing Luck" at the Jestamere Theatre this Saturday.

"Madonna of the Streets" will be shown on Sunday. Mooney and Frazee will be the stars. They are the stars in this story of Limehouse, London's picturesque underworld, probably the most notorious place in England. It is the story of a woman who sets out to collect a debt that her husband and son were left when he died. It is the story of Morton, forced to resign from a great London Settler because of his rich parents' opposition against the boy who goes away.

"The Jestamere" will be the great musical comedy of the day. The days of the comedy are gone, but the days of the musical comedy are here again. The plot is to his manner.

"Girly, Miss Fugue" will be the days of the comedy.

THE PEOPLE'S PAPER

PART TWO

NEGRO EDUCATION IN VA. IS RAPIDLY INCREASING

There Are Thirty-One County Training Schools. The Jeanes Fund And Rosenwald Schools Doing Much For The Race.

By Wm. Anthony Avery
HAMPTON, Va., Jan. 20.—W. D. Gresham of Richmond, State Supervisor of Negro Education, has made a general survey of Hampton Institute workers and students, which was held in Tidewater Hall, on "South Broad" Street, in the city of Hampton.

In 1923, according to Mr. Gresham, Virginia had approximately 2,500 colored children in school age, 51 per cent of whom were enrolled in the public schools last year 13,749. The average attendance was 11,110, or about 76 per cent. There are now 2,500 colored teachers, of whom 3,100 are women and only 472 are men. In Virginia there are 1,000 buildings for colored children, with 3,511 rooms and an average of 41 pupils per room.

There are still in Virginia 1,572 one-teacher colored schools and 306 two-teacher schools. The movement toward consolidating these small schools is progressing rapidly. The average length of term in small colored schools is 141 days, or 7.15 months. These are mostly month schools, running from January to June, and there are only 2 counties in the State where the term is five months.

County Training Schools

During the present school year there are 15 Virginia county training schools, and 12 Negro training schools. There are 12 teachers, of whom 10 are men, who have a term of 9 months; one has a term of 18 months; and 2 have terms of 3 months each. The enrollment in these schools is 6343 (3,000 boys and 3,344 girls).

While these schools are not yet ready to receive colored teachers, they are training them for colored schools.

The situation is the same for colored as for white high schools, and the certificates for colored teachers are the same.

In the county training schools there are above the seventh grade, 938 pupils, 520 boys and 208 girls.

World Teachers

In Virginia there are at work 200 educational supervising teachers, 100 Negro and 100 white. These teachers receive an average salary of approximately $800 per year. The income from tuition follows: from State funds, $10,000; from private foundations and local funds, $15,000. These men and women go in and out among the colored houses and schools and help in every possible way to improve conditions.

Rosenwald Schools

Julian Rosenwald, president of the Rosenwald Fund, has given approximately $2,000,000 for the building of rural colored schools throughout the Southern States. This year $400,000 will be spent in Virginia for this type of school. Up to January 1 Mr. Rosenwald had helped to build 100 schools, and colored children from North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia are now attending 400 Rosenwald schools. Virginia ranks fifth with 229 schools. This year 45 new schools are to be opened.

Where was Rosenwald born? He was born in Corydon, Georgia, which has over 8,000 Negroes; here he taught school, and his parents have since given $25,000 to 27 percent.

Rosenwald Fund $141,000 in 10 percent; the white people, $15,000; a fifth of the money, and local funds $400,000 or 50 per cent.

Last year 2,165 colored teachers or persons attended the formal annual summer schools, including Hampton Institute.

Educational Needs

Mr. Gresham outlined the needs of Negro schools in the South: better school facilities, longer terms, more buildings, more high schools, another State normal school, and above all, more Negroes and Negroes to Europe to be educated.

Mr. Gresham said that Negroes need to be educated for the true value of education.

"What we all need, white and colored alike," said Mr. Gresham, "is greater intelligence, and we must do a little more charity. We should not judge a whole race by the acts of a few individuals. There are good people and there are bad people, colored people. We must hold high the light and let it shine into the dark places where it is ignorance, and gloom and despair."

Rosenwald Schools

Through the cooperation of the Julius Rosenwald Fund 12 buildings for Negro school children have been completed during the present year. The fund has approved 25 additional buildings to be erected in the fall and spring, but his son, Carter, was something of a tyrant and despot. He built the Carthaginian bath, which was one of the wonders of Rome.

Carthage, emperor of Rome, a bolded Negro?—F. W. Cain III.

No. His father, Simeon Severus, was a native of Africa and his mother, an Egyptian woman, wife of Stevens Severus, was a native of Egypt. She died before her husband, but his son, Carter, was something of a tyrant and despot. He built the Carthaginian bath, which was one of the wonders of Rome.

There are 30 Negro schools, and, having 447; Mississippi, 306; Alabama, 220; Louisiana, 229; Virginia, 212; Tennessee, 180; North Carolina, 170; the other seven states, reported down.
